

ROCK CLIMBING

Rock climbing in Gorkhi Terelj - Mongolia.

Sport recently implemented in Mongolia by Wind of Mongolia in partnership with the local NGO Ger to Ger and the National Special Rescue Unit, rock climbing is now a new way to explore the country.

In our journey, rock climbing is just another way to discover Mongolia, the nomadic way of life, the culture.

Climbing up to these rocks will offer you much more than the pleasure of the sport: a unique panorama of amazing landscapes of the Khan Khenty area.

Terelj national park spot:

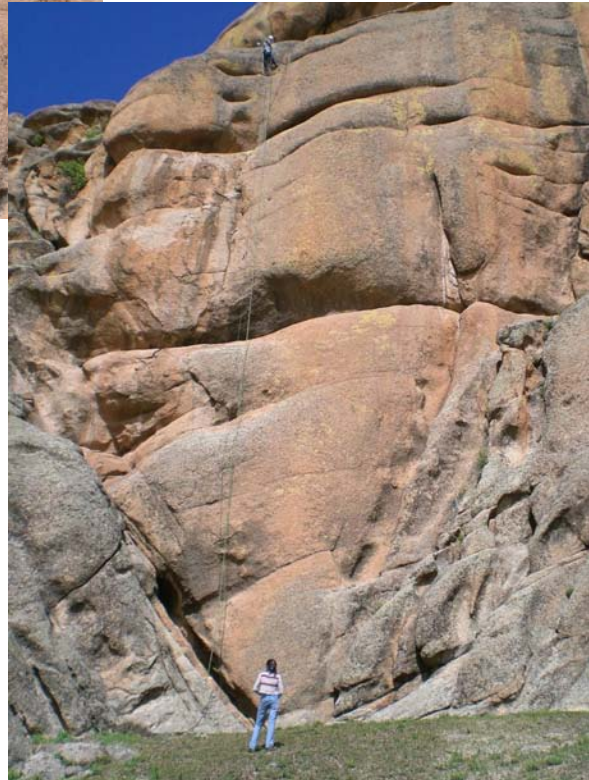

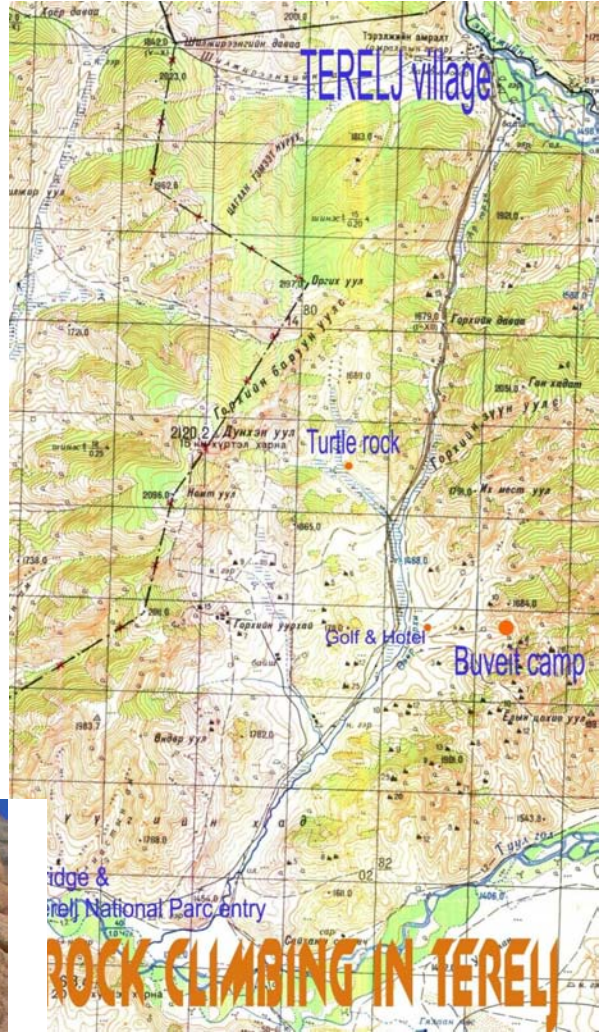

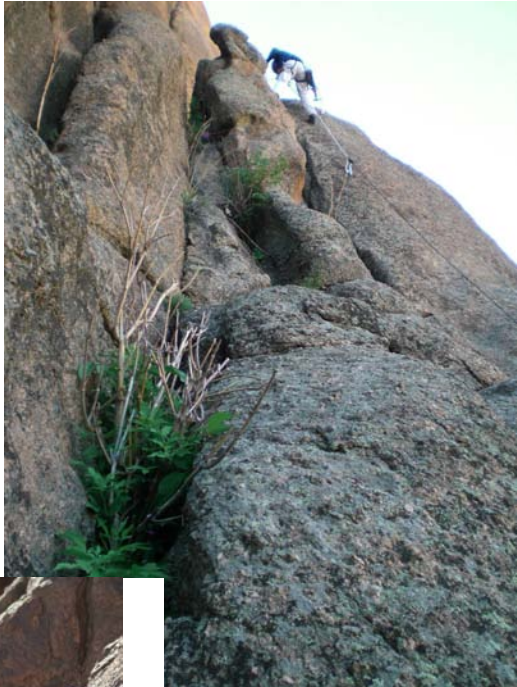

At 55 km from UB, at the door of the taiga ecosystem, the spot located at Buveit camp offers a unique landscape with erratic rocks and Siberian forest.

A various site, with routes from 6 to 35 meters.

Difficulty: from 3+ to 7. Kids as well as pros can enjoy a day of rock climbing on the site.

The site was opened in July 2007, nowadays; there is more than 8 routes ...
